Purchasers Of Property Claim Ground Represented As Virgin Had Been Previously Worked

Hearing in the suit of Placeres de Oro, a mining company, against Bert Carpenter, Sr., of Smith Flat, seeking judgment for $105,565.76 in connection with the plaintiff's purchase and operation of the Carpenter mine, opened Tuesday morning in Superior Court before Judge George H. Thompson.

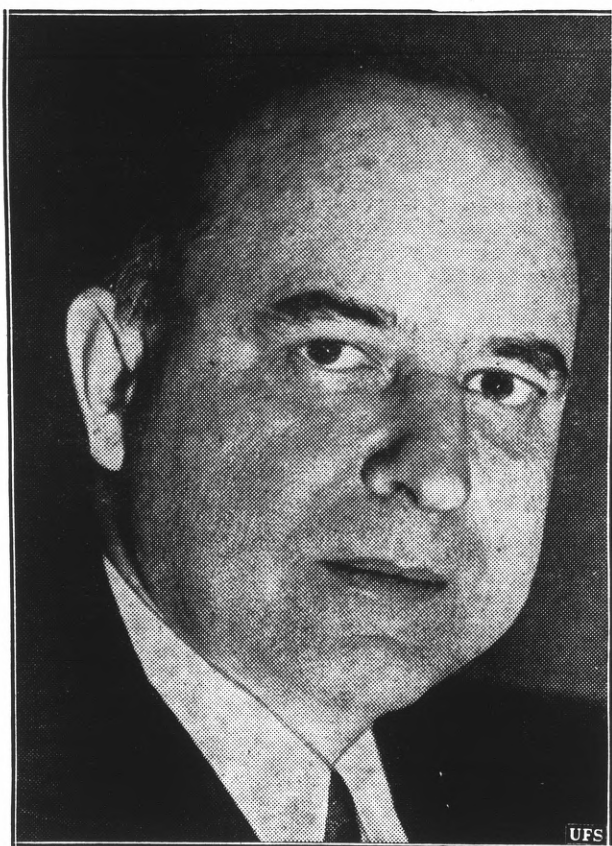

Complaint in the action was filed on June 3, last.

The associates in the plaintiff company are Malcolm W. Moss, W. D. O'Brien and J. K. Gold.

The complaint alleges that Mr. Carpenter represented certain areas of the property as virgin mining ground and that upon the strength of these representations, Mr. Moss entered into an agreement on May 14, 1936 to buy the property before June 1, 1936 for $35,000, which agreement was carried out.

Plaintiffs aver they began mining and carried on this work until March

MAN INJURED, DRIVER ESCAPES IN WRECK OF SEDAN

Gene Pierle, 36, of 2642 Twenty-First Avenue, Sacramento, was treated at Placerville Sanatorium for severe lacerations about the head Monday night, following the wreck of an automobile in which he was riding near the easterly city limits.

The car, a 1937 sedan, was driven by Frank Duncan, of the above address, and was proceeding westerly on highway 50 into the city.

On a curve near the Pine Grove Auto camp the driver lost control of the car and the machine crashed through a highway guard rail and rolled completely over on the lower side of the road. Pierle's head was thrown through the shatter-proof glass windshield.

Following attention at the Sanatorium, Pierle, with Duncan, who was unhurt, was able to continue to Sacramento. The car was towed to the Court Garage.

Keen Battles Seen As Legion Tackles Cougars And 20-30 Meets Red & White Stores

STANDINGS OF CLUBS
	W	L	Pct.
High School	2	0	1.000
20-30 Club	2	0	1.000
Red & White	1	1	.500
American Legion	1	1	.500
Native Sons	0	2	.000
Mosquito CCC	0	2	.000

Whether the Cougars and the 20-30 Club can remain in a tie for the league leadership is a question which will be answered for County Basketball League fans tonight at the high school gymnasium.

In the third round of the schedule, the Cougars, last year's champions, are tied with the Twenty-Thirtians for top position with two victories and no defeats.

But tonight, "two villains" in the persons of the Red & White stores five and the American Legion quintet may upset that arrangement. The Red & Whites tackle the 20-30 lads and the Legion will meet the Cougars.

First game on the bill will be at 7 o'clock with the Legion against the Cougars.

Then comes the big cellar championship, with the Native Sons against Mosquito CCC. These two clubs are tied, too, at two defeats and no victories.

The last battle of the night, starting at nine o'clock, sends the Red & Whites against the Clubmen.

He was chief clerk in the division of highways office in San Bernardino, a past exalted ruler of the San Bernardino Elks, and had held various American Legion offices in San Bernardino county.

BASEBALL MEET ON SUNDAY

Placer-Nevada League Heads Get Together At Freeman Hotel In Auburn

The Placer-Nevada Baseball League will hold a get-together meeting of the league directors, players and fans in Auburn on Sunday, February 6, 1938 at 2 p. m. This is according to Scoop Thurman, secretary of the circuit. The gathering will be held at the Freeman Hotel where most of the league meeting have been held since the circuit was organized in 1923.

The directors hope as a result of the gathering, to determine definitely what clubs will comprise the league this year. It is almost certain that Wheatland will be replaced by Grass Valley which city still retains a membership in the organization.

Other teams in the league last year which are expected to again place teams in the race are: Placerville, Folsom, Auburn, Colfax, Loomis, Lincoln and Roseville. The Auburn Cubs won the pennant last year.

Secretary Thurman is endeavoring to secure Walter Mails and a few other big time players to attend the meeting and take part in the program.

Bartletts Meet Thursday Night

Election Of Officers For Coming Season Principal Matter Of Business

In preparation for whatever Placer-Nevada league business may come before the league's scheduled meeting at Auburn Sunday, Placerville's Bartletts have been called to meet Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock at the P. G. & E. Company offices.

The meeting has been called by Aubrey Warren, manager of the club last season, who states that a principal order of business will be the election of officers of the club for the approaching season.

It is hoped that in addition to those who were in the 1937 club roster, such others as are interested in the game and in playing on the team during the coming season will attend the Thursday night meeting.

REDFERN EXPEDITION REPORTED RESCUED IN GUIANA

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, (AP)—Word was received here today of the rescue Saturday of the Waldeck expedition seeking Paul Redfern, long missing American aviator, from Devil's Hole Island, far up the Cuyuni river.

They had been practically without food, except for flesh of animals which they occasionally managed to catch. Their meager supplies had been depleted by the vicious acoushi ants and the "couroubetti," a minute red ant.

Redfern has not been heard from since August, 1927, when he attempted a flight from Brunsick, Gr., to Rio De Janeiro.

The structure is being erected upon property on the road which runs between State Route 49 and the old Vroman resort, which was purchased by County School Superintendent and Mrs. E. J. Fitzgerald and given for the purpose, with the reservation that a building must be erected on the property within a year.

The work has begun under favorable auspices and friends of the community are doing what they can to assist the project. The committee in charge reports that all contributions will be received gratefully.

P. O. SITE VIEWED BY INSPECTOR

Patton And Greeley Holdings Meet U. S. Specifications, It Is Reported

Probabilities that the projected new postoffice building in Placerville may be erected on a lot to be acquired from James Patton and A. H. Greeley, on Main Street between the Placerville Soda Works and the Ivy Hotel, was seen Tuesday following the visit here Monday of the Postoffice Department's agent Mr. Krummeigel.

Mr. Krummeigel called on Postmaster Joseph Scherrer and went with him to interview Mr. Patton and Mr. Greeley and questioned them concerning the minimum acceptable price for the property which they had offered.

It was explained Tuesday that it is not in the agent's province to say what property may be accepted, but that Mr. Krummeigel did say that the Greeley-Patton property meets the requirements of the government for a building such as it is proposed to erect.

Rumors persisted, but could not be confirmed, that a conclusive settlement on the Greeley-Patton site was arrived at.

BURWELL REYNOLDS MADE SERGEANT IN STATE HIGHWAY PATROL

Officer Burwell Reynolds, of the county's squad in the State Highway Patrol, was among thirty Northern California officers of the patrol who on Monday at Sacramento were advanced to the grade of sergeants in the patrol.

The new grade, recently created, carries a salary of $215 per month and a proposed increase to $225 per month is pending.

There was a rumor Tuesday that Sergeant Reynolds might be transferred from El Dorado County to some other command, where the size of the patrol staff is larger.

The sergeant is one the four members of the El Dorado County traffic squad which includes Captain E. A. Brewster, Sergeant Reynolds and Officers H. B. Fowler and Vladimir Sabich.

ROSS KIDNAPING HELD "AFTERTHOUGHT" BY SUSPECT

CHICAGO, (AP)—John Henry Seadlund, alias Peter Anders, awaiting action of the grand jury for the kidnaping of Charles S. Ross, insisted today that the kidnaping was an "afterthought" suggested by a chance remark of Ross himself.

"It was just a stickup," Seadlund said. "But as Ross got out of the car he said, 'I always figured I'd be kidnaped some day.'"

"That was the first time I'd thought of kidnaping him. I was sorry the next day."

Grinning and kicking at photographers, the slayer was arraigned before U. S. commissioner Edwin K. Walker late yesterday. When Seadlund stood mute, Walker entered a technical plea of not guilty for him, continued the arraignment until Feb. 2 and ordered him held without bond for the grand jury. It is expected an indictment will be returned Friday.

Seadlund was charged only with kidnaping—a charge which provides the death penalty under the Lindbergh law.

BLIZZARD HITS MICHIGAN

Drifts Block Wolverine State Roads As Dust Storms Sweep Kansas, Oklahoma And Texas

By UNITED PRESS

A swirling blizzard driven by a 40-mile-per-hour gale swept across northern Michigan blocking roads and disturbing communications today while rapidly dropping temperatures averted the threat of serious floods in Wisconsin, Illinois and Iowa.

The storm that lashed Michigan was the severest of the winter. At Marquette, Mich., isolated by 12-foot snow drifts, a fire destroyed two stores and threatened five more.

Water from fire hoses froze on the nozzles and icicles clung to the firemen's hats and coats. Telephone connections with western sections of the upper Michigan Peninsula were broken for several hours in an attempt to conserve power while the fire endangered electrical service.

A snowplow bucked the drifts between Ishpeming and Diorite to rescue 20 children marooned in a school bus. An 188-foot antennae mast of radio

COMMITTEE OF TWO ON WILLIAMSON MUSEUM IS APPOINTED

Don Goodrich is named chairman, with John H. Palmer as a fellow committeeman, of a committee of the Chamber of Commerce to inquire into ways and means by which the museum of George Williamson, of the Rescue district, may be preserved for El Dorado County.

The appointment of the committee by President Reuel V. Whigam, was announced Tuesday by Wallace M. Ripley, secretary of the chamber of commerce.

It is reported there is a probability that Mr. Williamson's collection of stuffed birds and animals native to the county may be sold and removed from the county, and it is the hope of interested friends that some means may be found to preserve the collection intact for the county, probably as an educational exhibit.

For those cities of the state for which representative figures are available, the only gain was reported by Bakersfield with an increase of 0.3 per cent, when comparing December 1936 sales with December 1937 sales. Losses were reported by the following cities: Pasadena, a loss of 4.0 per cent; Fresno a loss of 5.0 per cent; Oakland, a loss of 5.3 per cent; San Francisco, a loss of 5.5 per cent; San Diego a loss of 5.8 per cent; Berkeley, a loss of 9.9 per cent; Long Beach, a loss of 11.2 per cent; Los Angeles, a loss of 12.8 per cent; Santa Ana, a loss of 14.0 per cent; Sacramento, a loss of 14.6 per cent; Santa Barbara, a loss of 15.1 per cent; San Jose, a loss of 15.7 per cent; Stockton, a loss of 18.8 per cent; Santa Monica, a loss of 20.4 per cent; and Glendale, a loss of 27.4 per cent.

handling meat with an increase of 4.7 per cent. Other changes ranged down to 35.2 per cent loss reported by motor vehicle dealers. Department stores reported a loss of 4.8 per cent, and lumber and building material dealers a loss of 28.9 per cent.

No figures given above have been adjusted either for the number of working days in the various months or for seasonal influences. The figures of the larger stores of 24 kinds of business are included.

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McEMORE
United Press Staff Writer

SANTA MONICA, (UP)—If this isn't a good column it's not my fault, because I'm writing on a typewriter that belongs to a pretty fair country writer—Irvn S. Cobb.

I only hope that the typewriter, too, is a creature of habit that this one will instinctively form fine phrases, even when a very inferior operator is at the keyboard.

Knowing that I was a golfer, the Kentuckian from Paducah asked me to come to see him and enjoy golf in the right way.

"And don't bring your clubs," he advised. "They spoil the game."

Mr. Cobb's home is pitched on a high hill near the sea, and his front lawn commands a sweeping view of the Riviera country club golf course. It was on this lawn that we settled ourselves in deep chairs, armed with Bourbon highballs smoother than a kitten's ear.

"I was once a golfer myself," Mr. Cobb said, "but I quit it when my blood pressure got as high as my score. A man can't trifle with a blood pressure of 200 or thereabouts. So I searched and searched until I found this place, squarely on a golf course. You will notice that it overlooks most of the traps. I love to sit here at this time of day, when the sun is warm, and the Bourbon is in bloom, and watch and listen to the golfers in the sand below. Listen, and you can hear their low moans, their agonizing cries."

A colored boy served us a Bourbon. "An old family retainer, Mr. Cobb said. "Almost one of the family. Been with us, boy and man, for almost a week."

A man in knickers advanced solemnly into a yawning canyon below us. He carried his club as though a dreaded snake awaited his arrival.

"See that poor soul," Mr. Cobb said. "The Sabbath is a day of rest, but watch him. He'll have the labor relations board on him before he gets out. Because I know that trap. It's so deep he's foolish to go in there without a canary or a mouse. The treacherous and deadly mine damp, you know."

Farther across the fairway a determined soul was hacking at a ball in a ditch.

A colored boy served us a highball. "It's a liberal education to live here," Cobb said. "I knew nothing of geology when I moved in. Since then I have learned all there is to know about the various rock formations. One more blast and that fellow is going to be directly in the middle of the Japanese-Chinese war."

We turned our heads from such suffering and Mr. Cobb began telling stories. There may be others who can tell them as well—but where are you going to find them? Make him tell you sometime the story of the fight in PROVINCETOWN, Mass., (UP)—Fishermen sailing from this quaint port are their own best customers. Skippers aboard fishing vessels say their cooks serve 50 different species of fish as well as sea clams, scallops and quahaugs.

Louisville, years ago, between Herman, the battling waiter of the Pendennis Club, and Joe Wolcott. This is the only fight in the history where one of the contestants, as the starting bell was sounded, was struck over the head with a bottle of champagne, and literally launched into the ring.

A colored boy served us a highball. There is the story of how Bill Nye made friends with a Bengal tiger in New Orleans, or of the drunk who jumped out of a ten story window to escape the vicious "Brooklyn Boys," who stood only one foot high and rode dapple gray charges. Or of the time he ate the haggis and wore the kilts at a gathering of the Clan of Douglas in London, of the time the Boston gentleman was quietly reading The Transcript and was blown through the air into a watering trough. And to top them all, make him tell you of a feud in Kentucky, and Uncle Pleasant Phillipot's remark when he fired at three Toliver's on the rise and only got two of them.

A colored boy served us a highball. In short—spend an afternoon with Irvn S. Cobb.

You'll laugh and you'll love him.

Justice of the Peace Charles A. Rasmussen was among the Tuesday morning callers in the county seat from Lotus.

GAS TAXES FOR YEAR EXCEED $50 MILLION FOR FIRST TIME

SACRAMENTO—Gasoline sales to California motorists continued to gain during December to achieve a new high in the annual income from this source as assessed by the State Board of Equalization, it was announced today.

Board records show that the December assessments were $4,329,119.19, a gain of 4.71 per cent over the same month of the previous year. The tax was assessed for the month against a sale of 144,303,973 gallons of gasoline.

The December assessments brought the total for the year up to $51,584,003.69, the first time in the history of the state that the annual income from this source has exceeded $50,000,000.

The previous year high was recorded in 1937 when the total assessment roll against oil companies amounted to slightly more than $48,000,000.

"It would appear from these figures that California has achieved a substantial economic balance," said Richard E. Collins, chairman of the State Board of Equalization. "It is understood generally that gasoline sales may be taken as a fairly accurate barometer of economic conditions. In view of this, last year's gasoline tax assessments would indicate a healthy condition throughout the state."

The 1937 total was 6.81 per cent greater than the assessments reported for the previous year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bowman were in town Tuesday from the Four Corners district.

Carpenter Mine Suit Opens

10, 1937 and they charge they found that ground which had been represented as virgin had been previously worked. The complaint asserted that had they known this to be true, they would not have bought the property.

It is further alleged the value of the mine was represented as $80,000 when, it is claimed, the value was but $8,000.

In addition to this alleged loss, the complaint notes an expenditure of $3,000 for sampling; $180 for title insurance; $385 for the expense of organization and incorporation; $30,000 expended for labor and materials in excess of wealth recovered. Wherefore the plaintiff asks judgment for $105,565.76.

The complaint was filed by Attorney C. W. Pearson and associated with him in the case are Attorneys James Bladell and Herbert Clark.

Henry S. Lyon, Robert F. Roberts and B. F. Van Dyke represent Mr. Carpenter.

The morning session of court was recessed shortly after noon to reconvene at 1:30 o'clock. A large number of witnesses have been called and during the morning session various purported maps of the property at various stages in its history were offered in evidence and for identification.

Judge Thompson is hearing the matter without a jury.

Memphis Dean Feeling Better; Gains

MEMPHIS, Tenn., (UP)—Friends of the Rev. Israel H. Noe said today that they would attempt to persuade him to give up his 10 year plan for immortality on earth and not resume his fasting if and when he recovers his health.

The former dean of the Episcopal Cathedral of St. Mary was conceded "a fair chance" for recovery although he went 22 days without food or water. His heart action is improving and the intravenous feedings of saline and glucose are strengthening his emaciated body. He already is eating the pulp of oranges and soon will be able to take broths.

Lloyd Smith was here from Gerber on Sunday visiting friends and acquaintances.

AUTOPSY ORDERED WHEN POLICE FIND $13,260 IN HOME CACHE

POCATELLO, Ida., Police today discovered $13,260 at the home of Mrs. Jeremiah Burrell Williams, an elderly woman who worked for the WPA, and in the bed where she died Saturday night, they found a man whom they described as "dead drunk."

The man, Frank Groom, 51, was held on a charge of drunkenness. He also had a large sum of money in his pockets, police said, and he worked for the WPA.

Serial numbers of the currency were checked hurriedly to determine if they had been paid in a kidnapping ransom. Police said that none of the numbers appeared on lists published by the federal bureau of investigation.

Barometer readings throughout Michigan were the lowest in many years, indicating a continuation of the storm.

Temperatures that dropped as much as 25 degrees within a few hours in some sections halted the rush of flood waters through southern Wisconsin, northwestern and central Illinois, and parts of eastern Iowa.

Suffering was intense among the 400 persons made homeless by floods in Rockford, Ill. The cold, although it cut down the flow of flood waters, endangered the health of many families living in makeshift quarters until the water recedes from their homes.

Milwaukee policemen, wearing overcoats, mufflers and ear muffs, chased a nude man four blocks through icy streets. The man didn't know why he was abroad.

An Eastern Air Lines transport, carrying two passengers and a crew of three, landed at Hartford, Conn., airport early today after it had been lost seven hours in a gale. The ship, bound for Washington, D. C., from Newark, N. J. airport, was approximately 100 miles off its course.

"Puzzle Picture" May Identify Suicide

SACRAMENTO, (UP)—A picture of an attractive brunette, pieced together like a gig-saw puzzle from small pieces retrieved from a wastebasket, was forwarded to Philadelphia, Pa., today by Sacramento police in an attempt to identify a man who committed suicide here.

Investigators found the torn picture in the hotel room where the man, tentatively identified as Max Ulridge, 40, slashed his wrists and died Jan. 12. A Philadelphia address was found in his luggage.
